

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. APOSTOLICAL SUCCESSION IN THE AMERICAN CHURCH. (See page 66.)

Scottish Bishops
Consociations of Bp. Scotchman

English Bishops
Consociations of Bp. White

The above Diagram is intended not only to show the descent of the American line of Bishops from those of the Scottish and English Churches, together with the Order and Date of their Consecration, but also to exhibit the manner in which the older Bishops have been selected from the number present and assisting at each Consecration. The number of each consecration has varied from three to ten, thus rendering greater and greater the improbability of any trace of the succession. The circles marked, a, b, c, d, designate the English Bishops who have been present at three removes from the fathers of our consecrations. It will also appear from the above that no one of our Bishops is more than three removes from the fathers of our Church, Bps. Seabury and White. In like manner could it be shown that Apollonius and the others from whom we have derived our succession are, comparatively but a few removes from Irenaeus, the Disciple of Polycarp, who sat at the feet of St. John.

It is proposed to bring this Chart down to date in a future issue of the Church Almanac. The above was drawn by the Rt. Rev. Wm. M. Green, D.D., Bishop of Mississippi.

CP1685-15 ADVERTISEMENT.

THE CHURCH ALMANAC is published annually by the PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL TRACT SOCIETY, and is designed to furnish, besides the usual astronomical and other notices, full information in regard to the institutions of the Church and the several Dioceses.

The Rev. Clergy, whose Names, Parishes, or P. O. Addresses are not correctly or fully given in some one of the Convention Journals published by Oct. 1 in each year, should not fail, on or before that date, to send notice to the Editor of the changes to be made in the new Almanac. When this is not done, he is not to be held responsible for inaccuracies in the Clergy and Parish Lists.

Notices of "Clerical Changes," for use in the preparation of the Parish List (which will be published early in December, bound up with the Almanac), may be sent as late as November 1. The next Parish List will contain the number of Communicants in each Parish, so far as reported in the Convention Journals.

The Editor requests that his attention may be called to any names which are improperly retained on the List of the Clergy, as, e.g., the names of Clergymen deceased or deposed.

In view of the fact that no "Official List" of the Clergy of the whole Church is published, it is important that the Annual List in the Almanac should be full and accurate. The Editor will not knowingly insert the names of Clergymen who are not canonically connected with the American Church, nor omit the names of any who are not regularly deposed. In this connection, he ventures to suggest that "Notices of Deposition" be sent to him as well as to the parties named in the Canon.

A Table of the SUNDAYS AND HOLY DAYS FOR 1882 will be found on page 6.

The usual tables of Church Statistics, and the General Statistical Summary, will be found after the List of Clergy.

A list of Church Periodicals, and a City Directory, containing the Addresses of the Clergy in the principal Cities, are also given at the end of the Almanac.

Only INCORPORATED schools can be inserted under "Diocesan Institutions."

All communications for the Almanac, except Orders, and Advertisements, should be sent direct to the Editor, care of the Publisher.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1, 1881.

* * * Orders for the Almanac (retail price 15 cents, which includes postage), or the Parish List (price 40 cents, which includes postage), must be sent to MR. JAMES POTT, 12 Astor Place, New York, who also receives applications for Advertisements.

UNITED STATES CONGRESS.—The Forth-seventh Congress commenced its first regular session December, 1881.

The SENATE is composed, when the States are all represented, of 74 members, two being elected by the Legislature of each State, for a term of six years. The Vice-President of the United States is President of the Senate. In his absence, a President pro tempore is chosen by the Senate.

The HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES consists, when full, of 292 members, apportioned to the several States according to their population; a new election occurring every second year. In addition to these, a delegate is admitted from each organized Territory, with the right to debate, but not to vote.

Presidents and Vice-Presidents of the United States, from the Adoption of the Constitution to the Present Time.

THE TRUE RETURN.—It is said that the ministry is coming to be looked upon more and more as a profession whereby to gain a livelihood. I hope not, most sincerely, for the result can only be bitterness and disappointment. The true return to one who gives himself to the work of the ministry is to be found in the fact, that of all lives it is most like the life of our Lord, and brings us more closely into the presence of celestial and eternal truths than any other life, while at the same time, also, in many ways, it has the promise of the life that now is, if only our heart is in our work.—BISHOP W. B. HOWE, Convention Address, 1881.

(1) ASH-WEDNESDAY.—Proper Psalm, A.M., 6, 32, 38; P.M., 102, 130, 143.—Special Prayers before the General Thanksgiving.

(2) LENT.—The Collect for ASH-WEDNESDAY is to be read every day after the Collect for the day.

(3) EMBER WEEK.—One of the two prayers, "For those who are to be admitted into Holy Orders," is to be used daily during this week.

PRAYER-BOOK ENRICHMENT.—Such a work could not have been safely undertaken twenty years ago, for then there was too much party spirit manifested; too much narrowness of view; and too little appreciation of our glorious heritage as a part of the One, Holy, Catholic Church of Christ. But now, when there is so much substantial unity; when there is so much more of an appreciation of our position and our privileges; so much greater breadth of feeling and of sympathy, the work can be entered upon with every prospect of the most signal success. Change, merely for the sake of change, or from the prompting of a restless spirit, is always to be deprecated, and we may be well assured that nothing of this sort will be countenanced or sanctioned. Whatever is done, will be carried out in the most conservative spirit, and we may reasonably anticipate results in which we shall all most heartily rejoice.—BISHOP LYMAN, Convention Address, 1881.

TENURE OF CHURCH PROPERTY.—It is very important to place Church property as far as possible beyond the risk of alienation from its original purposes. When God has put it into the hearts of His servants of one generation to give a gift to His service, it is hard that such gift should be lost to the Church by the indifference or neglect, or lack of self-denial, of an after generation. As a general thing, responsibilities of this sort do not rest heavily enough upon the ordinary vestryman. When a hard pinch comes upon a Parish to meet its current expenses, he is too apt to have resort to the property of the Church for relief. There comes into my mind just here a case where a Vestry parted with an ancient communion service, or a portion of it, in order to purchase or repair a rectory.—BISHOP W. B. W. HOWE, Convention Address, 1881.

REVISED NEW TESTAMENT.—Meanwhile there are three distinct grounds for congratulation. First, with all its faults, this elaborate exhibition of courageous and patient Biblical learning refutes effectually the unbeliever's charge that Christians care more for their Sacred Book, as it is or has been, than for honesty and reality. Secondly, this searching and exhaustive investigation has left—as the Church expected without a shadow of fear,—every article of the Catholic Creeds not only untouched, but powerfully reaffirmed. Thirdly, an immense impetus is given in all English-speaking communities to a study of the Divine Oracles and of their meaning and worth to man.—BISHOP HUNTINGTON, Convention Address, 1881.

THE SUNDAY-SCHOOL is not only a part, but a very important one, of the Pastor's charge, and its spiritual oversight and direction rest with him alone and absolutely. Meetings of teachers may often serve a useful end, especially if called for the purpose of receiving instruction from him who is alone authorized to give it. In no case, however, should superintendents or teachers hold their position by election, but always by the Pastor's selection and appointment. This rule cannot be departed from, as it occasionally has been, without serious detriment to the spiritual life of the Parish and violation of the cherished principles of the Church.—BISHOP STARKEY, Convention Address, 1881.

(1) Proper Preface in the Communion Office.

THE CHURCH.—Never has the Church done so much as she is doing now to turn the hearts of the disobedient to the wisdom of the just, to convert the heathen and bring all men to the knowledge of that Eternal Life given of God through His Son Jesus Christ. Aggression, expansion, is the law of her life, and she is working up to that law as never before. She claims that she was chartered for a universal dominion, and she is developing a missionary energy that proves her capacity and her purpose to win such a dominion. At no place, at no moment, does the morning sun flush the horizon with the dawn, that its light does not mingle with the beacon-fires of her missions. She goes wherever she can go peacefully, and sometimes with her life in her hand. She has not only translated into nearly every spoken language, but sent to every people that have a language that can be used as a medium of the Spirit's voice, the Holy Scriptures.—BISHOP LITTLEJOHN, Sermon before the Convention, 1881.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION.—Surely it is at once the noblest and most urgent duty for which we stand responsible to God and man; and when the Church shirks this duty, she, to the full extent she does so, blots and blurs her own Divine Commission—"Feed my Lambs;" she forsakes the sources of her strength; she incapacitates herself for future growth and influence. In every generation the young are the seed-corn of the coming harvest for which we look. Indeed, I may say the young are the most important part of her heritage, because through them she repairs her own wastage, and lays hold on prospective increase and prosperity. She must, therefore, train them, not only for the gift and blessing of personal immortality, but for her own power and glory, as the chosen witnesses of our redeeming Lord through the generations of humanity.—BISHOP WINGFIELD, Convocation Address, 1881.

THE SOURCE OF REAL PROSPERITY.—We hold to our unchangeable Revelation, our unchangeable Creed, our unchangeable Economy of things revealed and believed. Succeed or fail, we must work on, bearing our Cross, under that primal Constitution, under those perfect Laws, under the eternal Head and present Saviour. We shall accomplish most, I am sure, by this steadfast, unquestioning, cheerful obedience to our Spiritual King, who in the Forty Days instructed His Apostles in the "Things of the Kingdom" and then left His Church to arise and spread in silent and gracious majesty over the Earth to its "utmost parts." Out in the kingdom of material nature the harvests are much the same from season to season, but they grow and ripen, and the people are fed and multiply. The husbandman "waiteth" for the fruit, and "hath long patience" for it. But it is not an idle, it is a laborious waiting. Increase your toil; God will increase your grain. Multiply your holy Services till they reach the full and complete measure of the Prayer-Book pattern. The souls of the flock will not get too much of the food of Heaven, the grace of the Sacraments, the light of the Word, the blessing of Prayer and Praise.—BISHOP HUNTINGTON, Convention Address, 1881.

(1) EMBER WEEK.—One of the two prayers, "For those who are to be admitted into Holy Orders," is to be used daily during this week.

THE WITNESS OF ANTIQUITY.—As Rome has been led into error on the one side, by its claim to be the sole teacher of truth, under the immediate guidance of the Spirit of God, and through a living infallible Head, so the different Protestant communities by which we are surrounded have been drawn into errors of another sort, by claiming the right to interpret the Word of God each man for himself, and without any regard to the witness which was borne to the truth by the express teachings and well-known practices of the first and purest ages. Now, if we cannot consent to accept the dictum of a self-styled infallible Church, "teaching for doctrines the commandments of men," neither can we accept the principle that each man may gather out of the Scripture such notions as seem most accordant with his own convictions and judgment. In both directions there is the need of a more reverent regard to the witness of Christian antiquity, and the clear light which the history of those early ages throws upon the sacred page.—BISHOP LYMAN, Convention Address, 1881.

PAYING OUR DUES.—If a man is in debt it excuses him from giving to God, but not from paying his tenth, or if he think that that rate of interest is too high on God's investment in him, and what he calls his possessions, then let him fix the rate at his own valuation, and pay as honestly and truly as he supplies himself with the necessities of life.

We have said this habit of paying our interest to God on principle is an education—it is a practical recognition of God's presence and superintending care; it makes one feel that God is near us, that He sees and hears, and takes cognizance of all we do, when we habitually lay aside a certain amount of our earnings or income, and charge it to His account, and regard it as much another's as if it belonged to any human creditor. We should teach our children these truths, and train them in the habit of paying to God His dues, and, when they have enough and to spare, to make gifts to Him of their abundance.—BISHOP SEYMOUR, Convention Address, 1881.

SPECIAL SENTENCES: PSALM instead of Venite: One of the SELECTIONS, or some other portion of the Psalms, and which may be "said or sung;" the LESSONS, Deuteronomy 8; 1 Thessalonians 5: 12-24. SPECIAL THANKSGIVING, after General Thanksgiving. COLLECT, EPISTLE, and GOSPEL.

THE CHURCH OF ENGLAND.—So far from declining, that Church is steadily advancing. She now teaches two-thirds of the children of the realm in her elementary schools. She has built, or rebuilt, or repaired, more than ten thousand Churches and twenty-two Cathedrals within thirty years, at a cost of $200,000,000; and within the past eleven years she has raised and spent more than $30,000,000 on Church Schools. Her hold on the two great Universities of the land—the centres of the intellectual life of the nation—has weakened at some points, but only to gather new strength at others. Her agitations and controversies are the signs not of decay, but of rising life. All her lines are converging toward greater liberty and greater energy of action.—BISHOP LITTLEJOHN, Sermon before the Convention, 1881.

(1) ADVENT.—The Collect for the first Sunday in Advent is to be repeated daily in Advent, after the Collect for the day.

(2) EMBER WEEK.—One of the two prayers, "For those who are to be admitted into Holy Orders," is to be used daily during this week.

(3) CHRISTMAS DAY.—Proper Psalms, A.M., 19, 45, 85; P.M., 89, 110, 132. Proper Preface in the Communion Office.

(4) CHRISTMAS WEEK.—The Collect for the Feast of the Nativity is to be said daily until New Year's Eve, after the Collect for the day.

GIVE, NOW.—Would that the solemn fact of the stewardship of wealth were more thoroughly felt and appreciated by the disciples of this day! Then the Church would cease to be a mendicant, and her treasury would overflow. It is a thousand times better for Christian men and women to be their own almoners, and see with their own eyes the blessing of doing good, thus laying up treasure in Heaven, and making friends with their unrighteous mammon.—BISHOP SCARBOROUGH, Convention Address, 1881.

The Preferred Creditor.

Systematic offering on principle is a duty enjoined upon us by Almighty God with the most solemn injunctions. The faithful discharge of that duty is one of the fruits of the Spirit, and may be said to be an education. Men grow into it, and it brings its sweet returns in cleansing the soul from the evil spirits of avarice, sloth, meanness, worldliness, and replacing them with liberality, generosity, unselfishness. It is astonishing often, and would be amusing were it not so sad, to observe the ingenuity with which excuses are framed for withholding from Him the Lord's portion. A man must build a house, or educate his children, or complete an investment, or start his son in business, or he has an invalid wife or daughter, or his crops have failed, or been poor, or bonds or stocks or real estate have not paid their usual or any interest; such pleas as these, and a hundred like them, are put forward for keeping back what is lawfully due the Lord's treasury. A tenth of what one has in hand as legitimate income, belongs to God. He claims it, and those who refuse to recognize His demand, must reckon with him when He takes account of His servants, as He will at the last great day. It is often said—in ignorance doubtless, and thoughtlessness: "Oh! I am in debt, and I must be just before I am generous," and with this sophism the unfortunate man thinks he has silenced those who urge the Lord's claim, and fully exonerated himself from all obligation to pay aught as an offering to the altar. The answer is immediate and overwhelming: God is man's first creditor, his preferred creditor in every respect, from any and every point of view in which the relationship may be regarded, first in point of time, first in amount, first in generosity of terms, first in forbearance of collection, first in power of exaction. God was beforehand with us, we are not our own, He made us; we are bought with a price, His precious Blood. We owe ourselves to Him, and all besides—our possessions, and the power to get wealth, and the means with which to amass it; and then, when we have done all, our efforts are fruitless unless He gives the increase. Is He not the preferred creditor in priority of claim, in amount, in generosity of terms, in forbearance? Do not all other creditors depend upon Him for the payment of their debts? Let his hand rest heavily upon a man in sickness, paralysis, and death: then where are his other creditors? Let mildew, pestilence, storm, war, famine visit the land and prostrate the useful industries: and then again, where are the other creditors? And yet, after all this, when a man is in debt, he counts God out, and says, "When I have paid all the others, then I will remember God." He begins by disallowing the claim of his first and greatest creditor, and making Him last and least, if he gives Him any place whatever in his inventory. But why, O man! do you not count yourself out too? Why should you and your family eat and drink and be clothed, and sheltered, and perhaps take healthful recreation at the sea-side, or in the mountains, or at the fashionable watering-place? Are you not incurring these expenses at the cost of others? Does not your creditors' money pay for your food, and raiment, and elegant amusement? Could you not at least stint yourself, and yours, and bring yourself down to the lowest level of bare existence, with the necessities, and no superfluities? You reply "we must live, and be in good health, and perhaps spirits, in order to be in a condition to make money and pay our debts."

There is truth in this plea for expenditure on one's self. We will not say to what extent the outlay should go—that must be left to each one's conscience: but, while the same man adopts this reasoning in justification of maintaining himself and family, and refuses or evades with elegant excuses, paying in fair proportion his indebtedness to God, it proves one of two things: either that he does not really believe in God as a personal being, who sees him, and knows him, and takes account of his life and conduct, or else he is insincere, and deceives himself, and seeks to deceive others. "God is not mocked; whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he reap." He that soweth forgetfulness of God in the things of this life, will reap the harvest of being forgotten by God in the things of the life to come.—BISHOP SEYMOUR, Convention Address, 1881.

The Protestant Episcopal Church

IN THE

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

THIS Church traces her descent from the Apostles of our Lord and SAVIOUR JESUS CHRIST, through the Church of England, to which she has declared herself "indebted, under GOD, for her first foundation, and a long continuance of nursing care and protection." It consists now of forty-eight confederated Dioceses, under the care of Bishops, using the same Liturgy and yielding obedience to the Canons enacted by the General Convention.

The General Convention.

This Body, which meets triennially, is composed of the House of Bishops, consisting of all the Diocesan and Missionary Bishops in the American Church; and of the House of Clerical and Lay Deputies, consisting of four Clergymen and four Laymen from each Diocese. It legislates for the American Church within the limits of the United States, but can make no alteration in the Constitution, or in the liturgy and Offices, unless the same has been adopted in one Convention, and submitted to all the Dioceses, and afterwards adopted in another Convention.

Secretary of the House of Bishops.—The Rev. Henry C. Potter, D.D., New York, N. Y.

Assistant Secretary.—The Rev. William Tatlock, D.D., Stamford, Ct.

Secretary of the House of Deputies.—The Rev. Charles L. Hutchins, Medford, Mass.

* * All corrections for the Almanac under the heading "Diocesan Institutions" should be sent in by Oct. 1st.

No Journals were received this year from a number of the Dioceses. When the Journal is not ready for distribution by Oct. 1st, the Authorities of the Diocese are respectfully requested to forward to the Editor a correct List of the Clergy, and such other information as will enable him to do the Diocese justice in the new Almanac.

* * Dioceses which have their own paper or organ will confer a favor by sending the Editor such numbers as contain Clergy Lists, Notices of Ordinations, Deaths, Depositions, etc. In some cases these papers may furnish all the information necessary.

*. NO HONORARY DEGREES will be inserted in this List unless the Editor is informed in what year, and by what College, they were conferred.

*. As the number of the Clergy increases, it is more and more important that each Clergyman should notify the Editor, in the month of October, of the changes (if any) to be made in the new Almanac. Send Postal Cards, care of the Publisher.

TO THE CLERGY.

A number of the Convention Journals are not published when the Almanac goes to press. Some of the Journals give the Parish, but not the P. O. Address of the Clergy. The only sure way, therefore, of having one's Name and Address correctly given in the above Clergy List is to send notice to the Editor of the proper changes to be made. It is not sufficient to send such notice to the Church papers, because the Editor of the Almanac has no means of determining whether the publication of the same is authorized.

* * Notices of "Clerical Changes" may be in time for the above List if sent before November 15. Every Clergyman should see that his Post-Office Address is correctly given in the List of the Clergy published in the Convention Journal of the Diocese to which he canonically belongs.

* * No pains are spared in the effort to make this List accurate in all particulars, but absolute accuracy is here impossible, and for the following reasons: (1). "Clerical Changes" are constantly taking place. (2). The Diocesan Convention Journals do not always give the correct P. O. Addresses. (3). Many of the Clergy change their Parishes and Post-Offices and neglect to inform the Editor of the necessary corrections. (4). Some of the Convention Journals are published six months before the Almanac goes to press, and the Editor cannot always procure Diocesan Clergy Lists, corrected up to Oct. 15. (5). Deacons, ordained after the meeting of the Convention of the Diocese to which they belong, in many cases fail to send their names for insertion. (6). After the list has left the Editor's hands, errors occur in the printing through the falling out or shifting of the type, etc.

N. B.—No HONORARY DEGREES will be inserted in the Clergy List unless the Editor is informed in what year, and by what College, they were conferred.

* * It is annually a matter of regret to the Editor that he cannot give in this Table the grand totals for the whole Church. He is unable to do so because some of the Diocesan Convention Journals contain no Statistical Summaries for the Conventional Year. Will not the Clergy see that this matter is attended to in their respective Dioceses?

It is greatly to be desired that one page in each Convention Journal should be devoted to the “Statistics of the Diocese for the Conventional Year,” the same to be compiled from the Episcopal Address, Parochial, Missionary, and other Reports. When this is not done, or when the Journal is not distributed by Oct. 15, the Authorities of the Diocese are urgently requested to furnish the items for the two Tables on pages 96 and 97.

* The discrepancy in this total (the figures just before given foot up only 42,289), is due to the fact that in several Dioceses the baptisms “not specified” are included in the totals.

THE NEW YORK

BIBLE AND COMMON PRAYER-BOOK SOCIETY.

THE PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL TRACT SOCIETY.

JAMES POTT, PUBLISHER.

New Address :

12 ASTOR PLACE, NEAR BROADWAY, EIGHTH STREET,
NEW YORK.

A PERFECT CLERGY LIST

Can be maintained only by noting on any list published annually the changes which are constantly occurring.

Nearly ONE THOUSAND changes of address and personal items affecting the clergy are announced in THE CHURCHMAN, during the year, between the issues of the Church Almanacs.

THE CHURCHMAN

THIRTY-EIGHTH YEAR,

1882.

THE RELIGIOUS WEEKLY

OF THE

PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

32 Pages, each 9 inches by 13, with full Table of Contents.

Single Copies, 10 cents.

$3.50 a Year, in advance, post-paid. Three Dollars to Clergymen.

THE CHURCHMAN was established about a third of a century ago, and its existence was continued under different names until the year 1866, when it was purchased by the present proprietors, and from that time on has enjoyed uniform prosperity. Its growth is due to the determined perseverance of the managers in their endeavor to make THE CHURCHMAN a religious paper which should exhibit, in all matters pertaining to its specialty, the enterprise and literary excellence of the best secular journals.

It occupies confessedly the first rank among religious and literary weeklies.

In effect, a weekly journal of high character is a magazine, made up of matter which merits preservation as much as any of the best monthlies or quarterlies. Therefore its form should be adapted to this. Recognizing the principle, the managers of THE CHURCHMAN adopted its present shape and size. It contains thirty-two pages, nine by thirteen inches in size, and is sent to subscribers most conveniently pasted and folded. The folding, the pasting, and the cutting are done by one process, on a machine built expressly for the THE CHURCHMAN.

THE CHURCHMAN is the reliable exponent of the attitude and the principles of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

It represents adequately the entire church, and is not an organ for the dissemination of merely party principles, or the opinions of one man or of one clique. It gives, week by week, with remarkable promptness, all Church news, and treats ably the civil topics of the day as viewed from a churchman's standpoint.

The voluminous reports of Missionary Meetings, Church Congresses, and of the last General Convention, issued in supplements to THE CHURCHMAN, free to its subscribers, are unique in the history of Church journalism, and almost invaluable to the Church.

In brief, THE CHURCHMAN is a weekly magazine of ecclesiastical intelligence and devotional and general reading, and is the largest and most widely circulated weekly in the Protestant Episcopal Church.

THE CHILDREN'S DEPARTMENT IS ILLUSTRATED AND SPECIALLY EDITED FOR THE CHILDREN.

The Washington Life Insurance Co.

OF NEW YORK

WAS incorporated in 1860. From that time until the present, not one of its insured has lost one cent of his dividends by forfeiture.

A non-forfeiture Law was enacted by the New York Legislature in 1879. The protection furnished the policy-holders of THE WASHINGTON in its charter, its application for insurance, and in its policies, is additional to, and better than that which the Law provides; e. g. take age 30, ten payment life policy, for $10,000, after nine payments, on surrender THE WASHINGTON would give, under the contract, $9,000, in paid-up insurance; whilst the non-forfeiture Law would give but $6,650. The greater benefit to the man insured in THE WASHINGTON being $2,350.

A policy in the WASHINGTON LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY cannot lapse by non-payment of premium so long as there is any dividend remaining to its credit.

In this company, during the time covered by dividends, after failure to pay the premium, the policy-holder is fully protected.

1st. Should he die during the time covered by dividends, the full amount of the policy would be paid, together with the balance of unused dividends.

2d. Should he survive the time covered by dividends, while there yet remains one dollar, to his credit, he may pay his premium for the balance of the year, his policy being held by his dividends in full force to all intents and purposes, no medical re-examination being required.

These are some but not all of the advantages offered to the public by THE WASHINGTON LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, of New York, and by no other company.

A GOOD COMPANY WITH A GOOD RECORD.

Everybody speaks well of The Washington.

New York Bible and Common Prayer-Book Society.

The object of this Society is the distribution of Bibles, Prayer Books and Hymnals throughout the Church, especially among Missions Parishes and Institutions unable to procure them.

Contributions are asked to enable the Society to keep pace with the great demands of our Missionary Bishops in the West.

JAMES POTT, Agent, 12 Astor Place.

THE BERMUDA ISLANDS,

Situated S.E. 700 Miles from New York and on the Southern edge of the great Gulf Stream, have a wonderfully equable temperature of about 70° from November to July. The scenery is varied with cultivated and wooded hills, and deep inlets of the ocean. The society is unexcelled in any British Colony. The Church of England is the predominating religion, and many of the Clergy of the United States, who have visited the Islands, have been well received. Communication is now made fortnightly by the fine English steamers of the Quebec S. S. Co., of which Messrs. A. E. OUTERBRIDGE & CO. are Agents, No. 29 Broadway, New York, from whom pamphlets and all particulars can be obtained.

The Company are also running steamers to Porto Rico and to St. Thomas, Martinique, Barbadoes, and Trinidad, sailing from New York on each route every third Saturday.

A HOSPITAL for the Treatment of ALCOHOLISM and the OPIUM HABIT.

President and Consulting Physician—THEODORE L. MASON, M.D. Attending Physician—L. D. MASON, M.D. Superintendent—J. A. BLANCHARD, M.D.

THE BUILDINGS are constructed for this special purpose, and they are more complete and better adapted for the treatment of Dipsomania and the Opium Habit than those of any similar institution in existence. They are situated on one of the most attractive points on the Bay of New York, and stand on a high bluff within one thousand feet of the Narrows, commanding a full view of the whole Eastern Shore of Staten Island, also the broad expanse of the Upper and Lower Bay, dotted with the representative sails of all nations, and inclosed on the horizon by the blue outlines of the Jersey Coast to the North and the Atlantic Ocean to the South. There are separate dining-rooms, lodging-rooms, and parlors, billiard and bath-rooms. There is also a lecture-room for religious services, readings, concerts, etc. All the New York dailies and other newspapers and periodicals are regularly taken.

THE MANAGEMENT is systematic, thorough and adequate. There has been no change in the staff of medical officers since the inauguration of the Home.

THE CLASSIFICATION of patients originated with and is peculiar to this institution. Being determined and regulated on a strictly commercial basis, it is made to depend upon the character of the lodging, board and other accommodations which the patients or their friends are willing to pay for.

By this equitable arrangement we are enabled to offer board, washing and medical attendance at rates varying from $10 to $36 per week. Those paying $16 and upwards, according to size and situation of quarters selected, are provided with a single apartment and a seat at table in private dining-room—the accommodations in the select rooms and the table being in every respect equal to those of a first-class hotel. Rooms in suit may be had on terms to be agreed upon.

REMARKABLE IMMUNITY FROM DEATH—The total death rate since the opening has been one-half of one per cent., or one death to every two hundred patients. The total deaths of legitimate cases for treatment in the Home has been only one case in eight hundred during the same period.

THE RESTRAINTS—Our system of restraint is compatible with the fullest liberty for each boarder patient to avail himself of all the recreation, amusement and enjoyment which the billiard-room, park and ball grounds, readings, lectures, concerts, musical exercises, etc., afford.

THE DISCIPLINE—The established code of discipline is comprehended in the observance of THE LAW OF PROPRIETY, as universally understood by gentlemen and ladies in the guidance of well regulated family and social relationships.

Patients are received either on their application or by due process of law. For mode and terms of admission apply to the Superintendent, at the Home, Fort Hamilton (L. I.), New York.

Two daily mails and telegraphic communication to all parts of the country.

HOW TO REACH THE INSTITUTION FROM NEW YORK.—Cross the East River to Brooklyn on Fulton Ferry Boat and proceed either by Court St. or Third Av. Horse Cars to Transfer Office; or, cross from South Ferry on Hamilton Av. Boat and proceed by Fort Hamilton Cars to Transfer Office, thence by steam cars to the Home. Request conductor to leave you at the Lodge Gate.

THE REPUBLIC OF GOD.

By ELISHA MULFORD, LL.D.,

Author of "The Nation."

8vo.....$2.00.

From THE NEW YORK TIMES.

Nothing like this unique book has yet been written. . . . It has not like "Ecce Homo," the trail of religious doubt in it; it is written by a man who knows the thought of his age, but whose positive convictions have the vision of the life and needs of the century. No book ever had less of the soil and stain of its time upon it. It is the mirror of the age, and yet, for the most part, it is the statement of the truth of all ages, as it concerns the spiritual life of man. The prime thought of the book can no more be shaken than the eternal hills; it is one of the few books that sooner or later create a new world for men to live in.

BOSTON ADVERTISER.

It is a book easily misunderstood by routine religionists, and several readings will scarcely exhaust its meaning; but perhaps it is not too much to say that, taken as a whole, no book on the statement of the great truths of Christianity at once so fresh, so clear, so fundamental, and so fully grasping and solving the religious problems of our time, has yet been written by any American.

THE CHURCHMAN (New York).

To all appreciative readers this will seem a remarkable work. It is the most important contribution to theological literature thus far made by any American writer. A bold and a most successful attempt to defend the faith from the attacks of its most dangerous enemies.

THE ADVANCE (Chicago).

A distinct contribution to the Christian thought of the time. One reads the book with continual surprises of pleasure at the combination of clearness, strength, and beauty.

THE LITERARY WORLD (Boston).

It is Broad Church literature, of very high quality, and cannot but give new pleasure and new life to every man who reads it with a reverent desire to know that truth which alone makes free.

LUTHERAN OBSERVER (Philadelphia).

Every page stimulates thought, and every argument proceeds from postulate to inevitable conclusion, like the tread of a conquering army.

PROVIDENCE JOURNAL.

We do not know any book of modern religious disquisition which shows either the elevation or the profundity of this remarkable book.

THE LIVING CHURCH, within three years, has attained a large circulation in nearly every Diocese, and has become one of the most popular religious newspapers in the country. Its advertising patronage shows the estimate of business men; and numerous unsolicited Testimonials from all Orders in the Church give the assurance that it is

THE COMING CHURCH PAPER.

It is supplying the want, long felt, of a bright, newsy, cheerful Church paper; popular in style, Catholic in tone, adapted to the wants of the Family and the Parish, and furnished at a price within the reach of all. The following are some of its

PROMINENT FEATURES:

The Lakeside Letters; Affairs in Foreign Lands; English Correspondence; Editorials; Brief Mention; Special Correspondence; Current Events; Stories on Church and Catechism; Sunday-School Teachers' Helps; Current Literature; The Household.

Nearly all the contents of the LIVING CHURCH are original, and the amount published each week is largely in excess of that of any other paper of the same price in the country.

AMERICAN CHURCH REVIEW.

The months of publication are January, April, July, and October. Each quarterly issue is an octavo volume of 300 pages, beautifully bound in cloth. Subscribers who wish to have their copies in Paper Covers, uncut edges, should so indicate at the time of subscribing, otherwise the REVIEW will be sent in Cloth Binding.

Terms: $1.00 a Number, or $4.00 a Year in advance.

The REVIEW is open to a free discussion of the great Religious, Civil, Literary, Scientific, and Philosophical questions of the times. On all Ecclesiastical questions, writers of whatever school of thought in the Church will be granted an equal hearing.

The REVIEW is printed from electrotype plates, and back numbers from January, 1881, can be furnished upon application.

Among the contributors for 1881 are some of the most distinguished writers of this Country and Europe.

TESTIMONY OF THE PRESS.

"It is the largest and best looking Quarterly Review yet issued in the United States. Its contents are as excellent as its general appearance."—New York (Daily) Times.

"The REVIEW is of very high character, and it will be a disgrace to our Church if it should not receive a thoroughly generous support."—American Literary Churchman.

"It is the finest looking magazine that has ever been issued in this country. It is gotten up in a style that commands confidence, that pleases the eye of the scholar, and appeals to the man of taste; it is the richest feast which has ever been spread before the American Church in the form of periodical literature."—Standard of the Cross.

"We think we hazard little in saying that in make-up and appearance, in the scope and character of its articles, in the life and energy that pervades its pages, in its independence and outspokenness, it has no equal, not to say superior, in the long line of its predecessors. We are glad if there is a constituency that calls for such a publication; if there is not now, we believe its merits will soon create one."—Churchman.

"The July number of the AMERICAN CHURCH REVIEW is a splendid number. Nothing equal to it, we may safely say, has ever been published in the American Church. We cannot help commending, once more, the handsome style in which the REVIEW is printed; nor help congratulating the editor again upon his enterprise in issuing it, neatly bound in cloth, ready for the library, without additional cost to subscribers. The American Church at last possesses one of the ablest and most unique publications in the highest department of periodical literature to be found on this side of the water, or the other."—The Living Church.

SUNDAY SCHOOL INSTRUCTION BOOKS, Etc.

The Church Catechism Illustrated. By Mrs. C. H. Smith. 7th Thousand. Price, 10 cents; per dozen, $1.00.

From Bishop Coze.

"I am g'ad to see this system of illustrating the Catechism reduced to a form of teaching which can now be introduced more generally into Sunday Schools through this book. My first impressions are so good that I feel no hesitation in licensing this book for my diocese and recommending it to others."

"This is a little book which we think may be found useful in many places. Illustrations in the line of Object Teaching accompany each lesson, and the explanations are generally good and easily comprehended by the small children, for whom this book is especially intended."—Churchman.

From Bishop Perry, in "Iowa Churchman."

"We predict for this happily conceived infant class manual a success equal to that of the 'Calvary Catechism.'"

"The little book now before us certainly does for the little people of the Church a work never done before."—Kalendar.

Harmony of the Gospels. By Mrs. M. Sterling Clarke. Tenth and New Edition, with Preface by Bishop Neeley, of Maine. Price, 10 cents.

In Preparation.
